

JVC to Launch Legal-Info Webinars

RAPAPORT... The Jewelers Vigilance Committee (JVC) is releasing a series of new webinars to help the jewelry industry become more legally compliant.

The program, which the organization announced last week, will cover four topics: sexual harassment in the workplace, understanding synthetics, anti-money laundering requirements, and laws pertaining to privacy, data protection and cybersecurity.

The first webinar will run in May, with the other three following respectively in June, October and November.
